

ON PAGE 6-B

WASHINGTON TIMES
30 April 1986

Foreign

BRIEFLY / Europe

Norwegian appeals spy conviction

OSLO, Norway — Arne Treholt, a former junior minister and senior diplomat jailed for spying for the Soviet Union and Iraq, began a Supreme Court appeal yesterday against the 20-year sentence he received last June. Norway's High Court said he had compromised Norwegian and North Atlantic Treaty Organization interests from 1974 to 1983.